

The Carmelite Monastery

The Carmelite Monastery (above) was built in 1869. It was situated east of the Zhaojiabihn canal.

(Below) The Carmelite Monastery today is used by the Shanghai Film Making Co. The house (left) is where the Sisters attended Mass; the house seen from the middle of the main gate was the nuns' living quarters.

The small church (Right) erected on the property in 1874 no longer exists, but it served for many years as a place of prayer for people from all over Shanghai.
